

My wife and I very much want to have the option to choose the cable channels which enter our home. It is not censorship it is good taste and parental responsibility.